QUERIES BY MRS. MARY SELDEN KENNEDY.

Have you any record of the early Lanes who settled in Virginia? 1. I want the ancestry of Joseph Lane, of Westmoreland. His wife was Mary Newton. Was she the daughter of Willoughby and Sarah Eskridge Newton? William Lane, father of this Joseph, married Martha Carr. Can you give her descent? Family traditions say that she was a sister of Jefferson's wife. 2. In WILLIAM AND MARY QUARTERLY, Hannah Ashton is given as second wife of George Eskridge. Family record gives her first name as Elizabeth; last name not known. She left a will and mentioned Elizabeth, who seemed to be her only child. Can you throw any light upon this also? Can you give name of father and mother of Hannah (Ashton) Eskridge? My account of the Ashtons has no Hannah. Katharine Eskridge, daughter of George Eskridge and one of his wives, married, first, William Jett; secondly, John Lane. This John had brothers, William Lane and James Hardidge Lane. Who was their father? Who did Willoughby Newton Lane, grandson of James Hardidge Lane, marry? I think William, one of these brothers, married Miss Carr.—Mrs. Mary Selden Kennedy, "Cas-silis," near Warrenton, Va.

BOOK NOTICES.

THE FORMAN GENEALOGY: Descendants of Robert Forman, of Kent Co., Maryland, who died in 1719-'20. Compiled principally by Miss Annie Spottswood Dandridge for Mrs. E. P. Dismukes, of Columbus, Ga. Published by the Forman-Bassett-Hatch Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

This book is carefully arranged, and contains much valuable matter. As a book of genealogy it is one of the best of its kind.

ANNALS OF HENRICO PARISH, Diocese of Virginia, and especially of St. John's Church. Edited and compiled by J. Staunton Moore, of Richmond, Va.

We have not the space to tell all the good things which are in this book. Henrico Parish was the parish in which Pocahontas lived after her marriage to John Rolfe. It was in old St. John's Church that Patrick Henry made his famous speech in favor of arming the colony. The book contains tombstone inscriptions, marriage records, vestry journals, and many other things. It should be in every Virginia library.
